Venice, September 17.

ON the 2d Inſtant Count Coloredo, the Emperour's Ambaſſadour to this Republick, had Te Deum ſung in one of the principal Churches of this City, for the Victory over the Turks in Hungary, and the Surrender of Belgrade. The beſt Maſters of Muſick performed on this Occaſion. Afterwards his Excellency gave a magnificent Entertainment to all the foreign Miniſters, which was followed by a Ball that laſted till Midnight, during which his Palace on the great Canal was all illuminated within and without. The Beginning of this Month ſix Tranſports ſailed for Corfu, laden with Maſts and other naval Stores for our Fleet. On the 13th Inſtant Sig. Marc Antonio Juſtiniani, made his Entry into the College, as Procurator of St. Mark, being accompanied by all the Procurators and the Senators cloathed in Scarlet. Men are hard at Work in our Arſenal, in rigging out two Ships of War of the ſecond Rate lately launched here, and in finiſhing ſix others that are on the Stocks. Officers are employed to raiſe a new Battallion in the Terra Firma. Letters from Naples of the 7th Inſtant adviſe, that on the 5th Count Daun received an Expreſs by a Brigantine from the Marqueſs de Rubi Viceroy of Sardinia, which related, that the Spaniſh Forces were weakened by Sickneſs; that they carried on their Approaches againſt Cagliari very ſlowly, and that he (the Viceroy) made no doubt of giving a very good Account of the Place.

Berne, Sept. 27. On the 21ſt Inſtant arrived here Sig. Giacomaſſi, the new Reſident of Venice to the two Cantons of Zurich and Berne, and in an Audience he had on the 22d of the Senate of this Canton, preſented his Credentials, and made a Speech according to Cuſtom. Having been ſince entertained here by Order of the State, he left this Town three Days ago, in order to return to Zurich, the Place of his Reſidence. The French Ambaſſadour at Soleure having notify'd by Letter to this State, that the Prince of Dombes would ſuddenly paſs through ſome Part of their Territories, in his Return Home from Hungary, with a conſiderable Retinue: The Regency here ſent Orders to their Bailiffs and other Officers, to receive the ſaid Prince and his Company with all the Honours due to their Quality, throughout the Extent of their Juriſdiction; but we ſince hear that they have taken another Route. The Affair of Neuveville having been accommodated to the Satisfaction of the Biſhop of Porentru and this Canton, the Chancellour of this State is ſuddenly to repair to that Town with a Commiſſioner from the Biſhop, in order to ſee the Treaty duly executed.

Hambourg, Oct. 1. Letters from Copenhagen of the 25th of laſt Month adviſe, that the Britiſh and Daniſh Squadrons were lying off the Point of Steffens: And that the King of Denmark was expected back from Sleſwick in a Fortnight. A Ship is arrived at Lubeck, which has brought over M. Campredon, who had been ſeveral Years at the Court of Sweden, in the Quality of Reſident of France. The Czar having been at the Court of Berlin, is now gone to Dantzick. 'Tis adviſed from Dreſden, that on the 24th paſt M. Coſpot and Lowenthal ſet out from thence, by Order of the King of Poland, for Vienna, where they are to attend the Electoral Prince during his Stay at the Imperial Court.

Vienna, Sept. 22. We have nothing new that is remarkable from Hungary, where 'tis reckoned the Campaign is at an End, and that the Imperial Army keeps the Field at preſent chiefly to ſpare the Winter Quarters: Prince Eugene is buiſy in ſettling them, and 'tis thought will not be here before the 10th of next Month. The Electoral Prince of Saxony is not yet arrived from Lintz. The two Princes of Bavaria continue here.

Madrid, Sept. 20. Yeſterday the young Prince of Robeck had the Honour of appearing covered for the firſt Time before the King at the Pardo, as Grandee of Spain, being introduced by the Duke of Bornonville, and accompanied by all the reſt of the Grandees. In the Evening the King and Queen left the Pardo, lodged at Colmenarexo, and arrived to Day at the Eſcurial. We have Advice that the Caſtle of Cagliari holds out ſtill; and 'tis ſaid Orders are diſpatched to the Fleet to return, and for the Ships to be laid up in the Ports of Cadiz, Galicia, and Biſcay. Cardinal Alberoni came hither on the 15th Inſtant, and gave Audience to the Nuncio Sig. Aldobrandi, whom the Pope has by an Expreſs recalled; which this Court reſenting, has ſignified that no other Perſon ſhall be admitted here in his Room. The Marqueſs de Caſtel-Rodrigo has ſent Advice from Barcelona, that in the Night between the 11th and 12th, they had there a violent Storm with Thunder, and that the Lightning ſet Fire to the chief Magazine of Powder, which blew up, and did great Damage to the Fortifications as well as to ſeveral Convents and Houſes.

Bruſſels, Oct. 4. On the 28th paſt an Aſſembly of the States of Brabant, in which all the Prelates and Nobles of that Province appeared, was held here, and ſent a Deputation to the Marqueſs de Prié, deſiring him to fix another Day ſtill for the Emperour's Inauguration, becauſe the Preparations for it cannot yet be got ready. The Marqueſs returned Anſwer, that he would inform himſelf what Forwardneſs the Preparations were in, and then give publick Notice of the Day he ſhould abſolutely fix for that Ceremony. The Deputies choſen by the States of Flanders, to preſent to the Marqueſs de Prié the Act of their free Conſent to a Subſidy of two Millions, arrived here, and had Audience
